Subject: Access MySCLearning Via MySCCentral MySCCentral

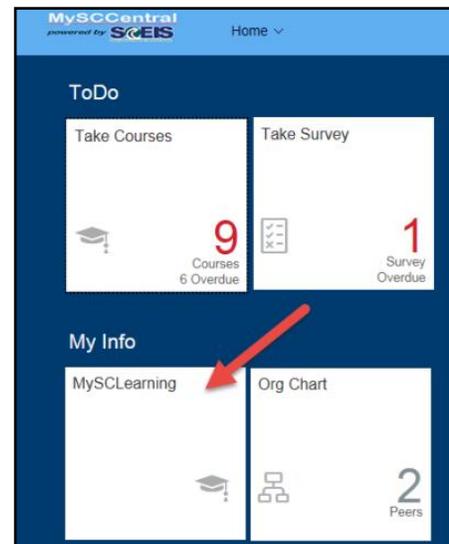

Audience: AST Leads, HR Directors, All MySCEmployee Users

The SCEIS Team is eagerly preparing for upcoming enhancements to MySCEmployee which will occur in phased approaches over the next few years. To strategically plan for new features, we are renaming the MySCLearning tab to MySCCentral.

Beginning Monday, March 13, users will access MySCLearning by using the tab labeled "MySCCentral". The MySCLearning tab will no longer appear on the main menu in MySCEmployee.

After clicking on MySCCentral, a landing page will appear and display a MySCLearning tile which will be used as the gateway to the learning management system.
