The SCEIS Team is pleased to announce that users will see a new version of the SCEIS uPerform training software beginning November 25, 2013! The uPerform upgrade will improve compatibility with SCEIS systems such as SRM and MySCEmployee. Along with the upgrade, the SCEIS Team is updating many of the uPerforms and removing those no longer used.

Here are just some of the benefits of the new uPerform upgrade:

- Provides advanced searching capabilities
- Content is significantly improved, with obsolete information removed
- Training contents and supplementary materials are available in a separate area rather than intermingled with BPPs.
- Printable materials now available for simulations as well as overall business process procedures.
